PROPHETS OF OLD

First to See Coming Of Prince of Peace

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — For centuries prophets have forecast the birth of a Christ Child and historians have made many references to the coming of a Messiah.

These are some of the names which have been applied to Him. Immanuel, Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace, The Lord of the Highest and Jesus.

Since the birth here today of the Wonderful child and the excitment and rejoicing that have followed local scribes have been searching history and the Bible and point to the predictions of Isaiah, Jeremiah, Micha and others.

The Lord spoke again to Ahaz saying, Ask thee a sign of the Lord thy God . . . But Ahaz said I will not ask, neither will I tempt the Lord. And he said, Hear ye now, O House of David . . . Behold a virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. — Isaiah 7:14.

The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; they that dwell in the land of the shawdow of death, upon them hath the light shined . . . For unto us a child is born, unto us a child is given, and the government shall be upon his shoulders, and his name shall be called WONDERFUL COUNSELOR THE MIGHTY GOD, THE EVERLASTING FATHER, THE PRINCE OF PEACE, of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgement and justice henceforth even forever.

The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this. — Isaiah 9:2-7.

I will gather the remnants of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds . . . and I will set up shepherds over them which shall feed them, and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the Lord, that I will raise, and the king shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgement and justice in the earth . . . And this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD, Our RIGHTEOUSNESS. — Jeremiah 23:3-6.

Now gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops; he hath laid seige against us; They say smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek. But thou, Bethlehem. Ephararath, though thou be little among the thousands of Judahs, yet out of thee shall come forth unto me one that is to be ruler of Israel; whose goings forth have been from old, from everlasting . . And he shall stand, and feed in the strength of the Lord, in the majesty of the name of the Lord his God; and they shall abide; for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth. — Micah 5:14.

In the sixth month the Angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, to a virgin spoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David and the virgin's name was Mary. And the angel came upon her, and said. Hail thou are highly favored, the Lord is with thee: blessed are thou among women. And when she saw him she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be, and the Angel said unto her: Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found favor with God.

Magi Followed Star To Find Son of Mary

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — The mysticism and beauty of the Orient has mingled with the simplicity and reverence of a little town made holy by a divine occurance.

Three sages from the East, impressive in the richness of their many colored silks and gold insignia, walked the dusty streets of Bethlehem today and told of their journeys across desert and plain to lay rare gifts at the feet of the tiny babe.

They spoke briefly and eloquently of the prophecy. "There shall come a star out of Jacob and a spectre shall rise out of Israel," and they described the brilliance and comet-like action of this star which had arisen in the east, and which they had followed until it halted over the Judean city.

These three Magi who bear the names of Casper, Melchor and Balthazar, were familiar with the Hebrew prophecies which foretold the advent of the Messiah, and had long waited for the star, they said. To prepare for the promised King of Israel, they sold their possessions and equipped a caravan.

Last night, surrounded by humble shepherds and barnyard animals, they fell to their knees and worshipped the young child with great joy, and presented him with frankincense, myrrh and gold.

When they were asked if the commonplace surrounding seemed out of keeping with Christ's significance, Melchor, the wise man, answered:

"The King we seek is not to be found in the palace, nor among the rich and powerful. If the light of the world and the glory of Israel had been appointed to come with earthly splendor, it must have happened long ago. For no son of Abraham will ever again rival the power which Joseph had in the palaces of Egypt or the magnificance of Solomon throned between the lions of Jerusalem. But the light for which the world is waiting is a new light, the glory that shall rise out of patient and triumphant suffering. And the kingdom which is to be established forever in a new kingdom, the royalty of unconquerable love."

An intimation of the uncertain future was voiced when he added: "I do not know how the turbulent kings and people of the earth shall be brought to acknowledge the Messiah and pay homage to Him. But this I know. Those who seek Him will do well to look among the poor and lowly, the sorrowful and the oppressed."

Astrologers See Tragedy, Sorrow For Holy Babe

JERUSALEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — Great tragedy will mark the future of the child born in Bethlehem, say the country's foremost astrologers. The stars, they say, reveal:

He will be in great danger while he is still an infant, and because of an attempt upon His life, many children will be killed.

He will live to be hailed in Jerusalem, but will later be rejected and betrayed by one close to Him.

Crucifixion will be the manner of His death, and He will undergo unspeakable suffering.

There are other venerable pathetic words which foretell the sufferings of the promised Messiah.

These reveal that He will be "despised and rejected of men, a man of sorrows and acquainted grief."

Their search of the records it is believed, will continue for many weeks and will entail many secret conferences with not only members of their craft, but with the priesthood in the temple itself. Whether their finds will be made public in detail is not known.

The astrologers added that this preliminary report of their findings as revealed by their efforts probably would be considered altered by further study and indeed, might be radically altered by results of research and study.

Dogs and Sheep Overcome by Celestial Radiance

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — The shepherd's dogs and sheep were overcome also by the strange light from heaven last night, the men reported.

'Mary Smiled at Me!' Simply Clad Boy Says

NAZARETH, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — A young boy — one of the band of shepherds which was visited on the hill near here last night by a heavenly host of angels who told them of the birth of the baby prophet, was a shy narrator of events transpiring at the stables when the presence of the child became known.

Rough clad, and plainly awed by his part in the divine drama, he gave the only clear impression gained of Mary, the mother of the Holy Child. The other shepherds were too inspired, and the wise men from the east too preoccupied with the identity of the infant to notice details which the eye of a child seized upon.

"Everything seems so quiet in the stable," he replied to questions. "I noticed that even the pigeons didn't coo like they usually do."

"Did Mary or Joseph say anything to anyone?" he was asked.

The lad flushed then conflicted: "Joseph asked to me help him fix the hay so it would be more comfortable, and then Mary smiled at me after she had been looking at the baby, and so I asked her if they didn't have better places in the inn. She answered low-like: "There wasn't any room for us."

"I felt sorry for her; and then she smiled again and just whispered: "But I like it here. The inn was so noisy, and the streets are full of loud people. The animals are peaceful. You must'nt feel sorry for us."

"I still felt strange. It is as though something too wonderful to talk about has happened to me, I can't explain it. But I feel so peaceful inside."

Inn Keeper's Faith In Miracle Strengthens

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning of Year of Our Lord 1. — Bewilderment marked the features today of the keeper of the little inn where Mary and Joseph sought shelter last night. But behind the bewilderment could be sensed a dawning belief.

"There was something different about her face," he said of Mary. "It was tired — but different. And when Joseph turned away leading the ass she was riding, something about him too, made me want to call them back.

"I went to the stable this morning," he mused. "Only it didn't seem like the same stable somehow."

Messiah Comes Into World Torn By Internal Strife

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — Christ was born last night. They say he is a King. Into a world torn with strife, into a dictator-ridden country that trembles at the clashing swords of Rome, has come the ray of light so long awaited by the troubled people.

It is a far cry from the golden pillars of Solomon's temple to the crude stalls of a cattle barn.

For hundreds of years the memories and tales of the glories of ancient Jerusalem have been treasured in the hearts of scattered race. For generations they have unrolled their papyrus scripts and reassured themselves that one day a Redeemer of Mankind would restore their kingdoms. With mighty armies He would vanquish a tyrant Caesar, and rebuild their shining city.

They thought of him in terms of shining rainment and a golden throne; they didn't expect swaddling clothes and manger hay.

They could see him proclaimed by heralds with silver trumpets; they didn't think his companions could be rough-haired oxen and sleepy-eyed goats.

They expected urns of smoldering incense, but not the aroma of a stable.

Multitudes would prostrate themselves on the ground in His presence, they believed; they didn't suppose that a harried innkeeper would suggest that the royal family sleep in the barn because all of his rooms were full of taxpayers.

Some say that this baby born last night to Mary and Joseph of Nazareth couldn't possibly be the Messiah foretold in Scriptures. But there are others who remember the words of the prophet Isaiah, of Jeremiah and of Micah and with unspeakable joy hail Him as the Saviour of Israel.

Mary and Joseph Both Descendants Of Royal Line

NAZARETH, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — Although Mary, mother of the Saviour, and her husband, Joseph, live among the humbler folk here, where he is a carpenter, they are of the royal family of Judiah and the descendant of King David.

The Jews keep exact lists of their genealogies thus explaining the present situation.

For the old prophets said that the Christ child was to be born at Bethlehem whereas Mary lives in Nazareth 50 miles distant. But when the Emperor Augustus called for the regular 10-year census he ordered Herod to register the people according to the tribe to which they belong. Mary and Joseph belonging to the family of David were required to go to Bethlehem.

Shopkeeper Has Doubts About Jesus

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — "All the excitement has made more business for my shop but I do not believe he is the Christ."

That was the opinion of the proprietor of a small shop here who has not yet visited the now-famous birthplace of the infant-Jesus.

"I really believe this is just something arranged to make more entertainment for taxpayer week," he went on. "Why, the true Christ will be so mighty that there will not be a doubt by anyone when he comes. That light was just a falling meteor and those sleepy shepherds were startled by it. You know how a story can grow."

He said he had been too busy to go along with the crowds to the stable, and added that the innkeeper would probably have more business than ever.

"I have an extra room here at the back," he said thoughtful. "If I had only known — and he hurried to wait on a customer.

Lowly Shepherds with Flocks on Nearby Hills First to Note Miracle of Celestial Visitation

Long-Awaited Messiah Born in Lowly Manger

The Christmas issue today tells the story of Christ's birth as it might have been told if modern newspapers had been printed at that time. Today's current news appears on inside pages. The Bethlehem story was mainly written several years ago by a newsman and its use has become tradition with us. The dispatches are based on the story of the Christ child as it was originally written.

Eyes of All Judea Turn to Bethlehem As Word Spreads

Appearance of Star Convinces Inhabitants New Baby is Prince

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — The eyes of all Judea are turned with awe today upon this little town as the word emanates from it that the long prophesied Messiah was born here last night.

Miraculous happenings and visitations of heavenly hosts which confronted them with radiance and divine song, lead inhabitants to believe that this is the prince of the throne of David, who Scriptures have said will reunite the scattered tribes of Israel and reign over them as the Son of God.

The appearance of a new star of Great Magnitude and luminenscence, convinced them that it portends to the ancient prophecy.

The infant, born to Mary, a Jewish girl from Nazareth, who is the wife of Joseph, a carpenter, was first discovered by a group of shepherds who received the news of His birth from a band of angels while they were tending their flocks in the low lying hills outside the city.

Descending in a blaze of heavenly glory that prostrated the little group of men and boys with amazement, the divine visitors told them not to be afraid but to go to the stable in Bethlehem, where they would find the Christ in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger.

This the shepherds did, being guided all the way by an angel. There they found the child, but recently born, with his parents and stable animals. So deep was the conviction of the angel's message upon them, that they immediately accepted Him as the promised Saviour, and fell upon their knees and worshiped him.

Following in quick succession the visit of the shepherds was a caravan of wise men, or Magi, from humble birthplace bearing jewels and precious gifts. To them too, this was a long-awaited event, since they are close students of astronomy, and were watching for the star. When it appeared they regarded it as the sign that the child had been born which the prophet had foretold.

While the largest part of the population here is talking of the event in tones of unsuppressed awe, and plainly regard it as a means by which they will be delivered from their Roman oppressor, there are many who are frankly skeptical. They feel that the future Christ will come from a more significant source.

The whole atmosphere here has been one of unusual excitement for the past few days since that was the time decreed by Augustus Caesar for all tax payers in Judea to be registered. Mary and Joseph being of the house of David, were required to come to Bethlehem, and although Mary was an expectant mother, and the 50-mile journey from Nazareth in Galilee was extremely arduous for her, the urgency of the order was such that they dare not say no.

From the meager details gained from keepers of public places, it appears that Joseph had failed to make any reservation for lodging. The low temperature of the winter night forced them to the stable where they made themselves as comfortable as they could in the straw. They suffered no ill effects from the experience, however, and those who visited the little family after the birth became known, report that an aura of light transformed the dingy surroundings into a place of beauty.

Mary indicated that she would call the child Jesus.

Herod in Dread, Seeks to Delude Sages from East

Manger Miracle Told Over and Over As Groups Collect

JERUSALEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — An apprehensive Herod sits on the throne of Judah, and is much disturbed at the significance of the Messiah in Bethlehem.

This was brought to light with the recent visit here of sages from the East who were seeking the newborn King of the Jews. Having heard of their inquiries, Herod hastily called together his chief priests and scribes who write the laws, and demanded them to tell him more of the prophecies of Christ's coming.

Then he summoned the wise men for questioning, and led them to believe that, if they would go to Bethlehem, discover the Child and return and tell him about it, he would journey there himself to pay homage.

Those who heard Herod's interview with these Eastern wise men say he was given only evasive answers.

Political commentators say it is understandable that Herod should feel uneasy at the rise of a leader who will capture the imagination of a discouraged people. His reign has been a singularly unhappy one due to the pressure from Rome.

The Emperor Augustus has lately accumulated foreign property and subjects through a campaign of military invasions and controls about all in this part of the world that is worth taking. This has occupied the minds of the people, but has increased Roman extravagances. Palestine is one of these conquered countries and Herod is the King of Augustus's own choosing.

Some regard Herod's fear of a ruler who will overthrow him in a material sense as being unfounded.

They maintain that the significance of the Messiah is spiritual rather than political, and point out that he has always been prophesied as a Shepherd of Souls rather than a military deliverer.

Herod's nature, these commentators say, makes it impossible for him to understand a Prince of Peace.

Great Joy Pervades City of Bethlehem

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — It is impossible to describe the feeling of great joy that pervades Bethlehem today as the coming of the long-heralded Messiah is realized by the majority of its inhabitants.

The shepherds probably experienced the most poignant sensation for it was to them that the news was first given. The little group who were guarding their flocks from foxes and wolves that still roam the hills of Palestine, speak with great wondering of last night's message from the sky.

The amazing light together with the chanting of a heavenly host has brought on incoherence to their speech; but the radiance of their facts is more impressive than any words could be.

"An angel of the Lord suddenly flashed before us and the glory of the Lord shown all around us," one of them said.

"We were frightened but the angel said, "Have no fear. This is good news. I am bringing to you news of great joy that is meant for all the people. Today you have a saviour born in the town of David, the Lord, Messiah. And here is a proof to you; you will find a baby wrapped up and lying in a stall for cattle."

Then a host of heaven's army suddenly appeared beside the angel, extolling God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

"Having sung this song, the angel went back to heaven, the light faded away, and all was dark as before."

"We began talking together about these strange sights and sounds," the shepherd related.

"We didn't stop to think what would happen to our flocks, or wait until morning, we went at once. When we saw all was as the angel had said, we told everyone about it."

Brilliant Star Presaged Secret Mystery of Birth

JERUSALEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — Eminent astrologers here admit to the appearance of a new star. They say that at infrequent periods such stars, or novae, as they term them, suddenly appear with great brilliance, are evident for a time, then fade away.

Last night's star, they explained, resulted from the conjunction of two great planets, Jupiter and Saturn.

Magi's Wisdom is Greatest in World Declares Caspar

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — This is what Casper, one of the wise men, said about their belief:

"The wisdom of the Magi is the greatest of all wisdoms on earth, because it knows its own ignorance. And that is the secret of power. We worship fire as a symbol of Him. We keep men always looking and waiting for a new sunrise but we ourselves understand that the darkness is equal to the light and that the conflict between them will never be ended."

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — Several known spies and two synochophants of the court of King Herod, who for the greater part of the morning have been furtively watching the stable wherein the King of Glory rests in his swaddling clothes, left and came bound presumably for Jerusalem.

Herod is known to be extremely interested in the journeys of the Magi to Bethlehem.

College Crest Draws Protest From Planners

The Lemon Grove Planning Association met last week and discussed the proposed county services area which is necessary for a park project, voted to protest a subdivision, and cancelled a meeting scheduled for next week.

Peter Detwiler, from the Local Agency Formation Commission, told planners about a proposed county service area which will be the subject of a LAFCO hearing January 15.

The service area will supply local funds to match federal funds for construction of a six-acre park at Mt. Vernon and Massachusetts.

A highlight of the meeting was when the group decided to send a representative to a San Diego City Council meeting today to protest the proposed College Crest development.

The development would be within the San Diego City Limits but also inside the Lemon Grove School District.

The group cancelled a scheduled December 28 meeting because of its proximity to the holiday.

Tax Cuts Seen With SB-90

State Senator James R. Mills announced last week that most local school districts can expect a property tax decrease after the passage of SB-90, the Reagan-Moretti tax shift measure.

Mills was one of three senators who held out their votes for the measure until more school financing was included, he said. Those votes were decisive in approving the bill and sending it to Governor Reagan, who signed it into law Monday.

Mills released figures for Lemon Grove and Spring Valley area districts indicating anticipated tax rate cuts.

The Grossmont Union High School District, with a tax rate of $2.914 currently, should dip to about $2.18 next fiscal year, he said.

Other districts were:

Lemon Grove, from $3.495 currently to $2.230; Jamul-Las Flores, from $2.449 to $2.390; and La Mesa-Spring Valley from $3.811 to $2.491.

LEMON GROVE REVIEW

The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin

Case of the Jailed Reporter

Suddenly, you have been deprived of some of your right to know how your (government) business is being conducted.

It is a growing loss that's occurring in courts across the nation.

It has to do with news reporters' rights to shield his source of information.

An increasing number of reporters are being jailed for protecting their source following an interpretation of a Supreme Court ruling that source protection by a reporter is inviolate—but not positively.

Attention will be focused on just one of the growing number of cases—the case of reporter William Farr, a 37-year-old ex-Marine who was jailed this month as a fall-out of the Manson trial. It is published here so that you may better understand the cause and effect of present interpretations of "your right to know" which is guaranteed by the Constitution.

It all started when Farr, then a Los Angeles HERALD-EXAMINER reporter was assigned to cover the Charles Manson trial. On Dec. 10, 1969, Superior Court Judge William B. Keene, who presided over the preliminary proceedings on the Manson trial before he was challenged and removed, imposed a gag rule. Based on research material supplied by Ben Cunningham, associate professor of journalism, California State University at Long Beach for an article in QUILL, the magazine for journalists, the gag was not considered by the working press as an unusual gag rule.

The trial began in June, 1970 with Superior Court Judge Charles H. Older presiding.

Sometime in July, 1970, Farr obtained information about a bizarre plot by Manson and his "family" to murder Frank Sinatra, Elizabeth Taylor, Richard Burton, Tom Jones and Steve McQueen. He wrote the story but advised his editor he could not release it until Susan Atkins' cellmate, Virginia Graham, had testified. According to Professor Cuningham's research material, this was the usual arrangement under a gag rule—after the testimony the press could talk to whoever had testified.

However, on Oct. 1, Judge Older cautioned all attorneys in the trial that the gag order, as far as he was concerned, would pertain to all witnesses before, during and after the testimony.

This was considered unusual. Most veteran trial reporters complained about the order. Farr would challenge it.

Farr was concerned that his story based on Graham's testimony received off the record, would place her in danger of affecting her parole. He also thought there was a possibility she would have to face a hearing in which she would have to admit she had talked to Farr or perjure herself if she denied it. In order to circumvent Older's gag order, Farr obtained trial transcripts of Graham's testimony from several of the defense attorneys. Then he suggested that Graham's attorney tell Judge Older that Farr had a copy of the Graham transcript.

When Judge Older learned of this he called Farr into his chamber and asked him if he did have the transcript, and Farr admitted that he did. Judge Older asked him if he would say who had given him the transcript. Farr said he would not. Judge Older asked him, according to the report in the Cunningham study, if he was invoking the statutory privilege of a reporter's immunity to protect a news source under Sect. 1070 of the State Evidence Code. Farr replied that he was. Then he told Judge Older his newspaper was going to run the story.

He said he told the judge this so the windows of the bus transporting the sequestered jury to and from court would be covered. They were and the jurors later said that they never saw front page stories of the bizarre plot, Cunningham's study showed.

That seemed to be the end of another clash occurring regularly between trial judge and trial reporter regarding the gag rule.

But Judge Older was still upset about how Farr got the transcripts and wanted to know who gave them to him. He believed the attorney should be punished for violating the court's gag rule. He wanted the name but Sect. 1070 prevented him from finding out. The attorney would face disbarment if Farr named him. Farr had promised anonimity and intended to keep it that way.

Farr left the Herald-Ex on March 1, 1971 to serve as executive assistant to the Los Angeles District Attorney. On May 5 he was served by an order from Judge Older to show cause why he should not be compelled to answer essentially the same questions he had been asked seven months earlier. The court was of the opinion that the shield law no longer proteced Farr since he left the Herald-Ex. Shortly, he obtained a job as an investigating reporter with the LOS ANGELES TIMES.

After a series of three hearings, Farr was found guilty on July 28, 1971 on 13 counts of civil contempt. A contempt charge normally carries a 5-day sentence and a $500 fine which would mean 65 days and a $6,500 fine and Farr said he would pay the penalty rather than reveal the lawyer's name. But Judge Older says that Farr is guilty of CIVIL contempt and this kind of contempt carries an indefinite sentence. Farr would remain in jail until he answers the questions.

The attorneys involved in the case and suspected by the judge, denied under oath of having given the transcripts to Farr.

Farr appealed the case believing that shield law privilege does not evaporate because of taking a non-journalism job.

The Second District Court of Appeals on Dec. 17, 1971 ruled against Farr on the basis the shield law was unconstitutional because the California legislature has no right to pass laws interfering with a judge's ability to govern the proceedings in his own court.

Farr then requested a California Supreme Court hearing which was denied on March 20, 1972. The court said the question of whether the privilege evaporated was now moot. The California legislature has since amended Sec. 1070 to make the immunity in perpetuity. To that extent the Farr case has done some good but not for Farr. He still faced prison. He was now convinced Judge Older was determining to get the name—or names.

On June 19, 1972 his attorneys appealed to the U.S. Supreme Court. On Nov. 13, his appeal was rejected.

Two days later he was notified by Judge Older that he was to appear in his court the next day. Without time to get his affairs in order he was jailed for an indeterminate term for contempt. Three and a half hours later the California Court of Appeals ordered Farr's release on his own recognizance, pending the outcome of a petition for a writ of habeas corpus. Ironically, two of the three appellate judges ordering his release were two of the judges who had concurred in the original appellate decision upholding Older's contempt order against Farr.

On Nov. 21 the California Court of Appeals denied Farr's petition. Farr went back to court on Monday Nov. 27. The six attorneys in the Manson case all testified under oath that they did not hold Farr to his promise to protect his sources. However, in his testimony, Farr said two of the attorneys had asked him not to reveal their identities.

Farr refused to tell Older his sources and he was returned to jail—and there he now is.

FAREWELL — Adieus finally came to the F. R. Fauchers this week as the couple (right) began desk-cleaning at the Lemon Grove Post Office. Faucher has been Lemon Grove's Post Master for 23 years and his wife, Naoma, has worked there as clerk during his tenure.

Visiting to pay respects in advance, regarding the retirement that comes to the couple December 31 was U.S. Congressman Lionel Van Deerlin (l) and Post Master Ralph Connell. A community-sponsored dinner honoring the couple will be held January 14 at the El Cajon Elks Lodge.

Fauchers To Say Farewell At Retirement Dinner January 14

The Lemon Grove Post Office will have a new look when 1973 arrives.

Missing will be its postmaster of 23 years, Francis R. "Frenchy" Faucher, and his wife, Naoma, who has worked with him in three different Lemon Grove postal facilities since 1949.

A community "Retirement Dinner" will honor the couple at the El Cajon Elks Lodge on January 14 at 3:30 p.m.

It will be preceded by a cocktail hour. Festivities will include music and dancing.

The dinner is being sponsored jointly by the L.G. Chamber of Commerce, the several service clubs of Lemon Grove and employees of the Post Office. The affair is not closed to the public. Anyone who wishes to attend may acquire tickets from Lemon Grove's assistant postmaster T. N. Hale for $5.25.

Hale, who is in charge of arrangements, promises that no long speeches will be on the agenda although some notables who have indicated they would attend may feel impelled to toast the retiring couple.

Faucher, 59, was appointed substitute postal clerk in Nov., 1937 and was promoted to regular clerk in 1940.

WWII Mechanic

He resigned on Dec. 31, 1942 to join the Navy Department and Convair as a WWII mechanic and instructor on aircraft engine.

In 1947 he was re-instated as a postal clerk in the Lemon Grove office and on July 1, 1949 he was appointed postmaster by President Harry Truman. The confirmation came from the U. S. Senate on May 15, 1950.

The Lemon Grove Post Office served 2,500 patrons when Faucher started in Lemon Grove. Now it serves 27,000.

Personnel also grew. From 3 city routes and 7 clerks it is now 20 city routes, 12 clerks, 3 supervisors and 2 custodians.

Faucher has served on several school bond campaign committees and was president of the local Swim Pool Assn. He was secretary for five years and president of the County Post Masters' Assn. and is now a director. He has been co-chairman of the United Campaign fund and was chairman in 1957.

He served on the committee to incorporate Lemon Grove and has worked closely with the local chamber of commerce for the past 20 years and part of the time, was director. He was overseer of building location changes of the Post Office three times as the facility needed larger quarters.

He is a charter member of the Lemon Grove Kiwanis club; was secretary three years and was president in 1970.

The Fauchers have four children and nine grandchildren. The oldest, Tom, is a La Mesa Post Office letter carrier. Another son, Jerome, is a heavy equipment mechanic for the Navy Department, and the youngest son, Dr. Robert Faucher, is a Chula Vista dentist.

A daughter, Jeanie, is married, has two children and lives in Garland, Texas.

Dear Santa Claus...

With Christmas just a few days away and the last-minute rush to the post office with letters and packages to loved ones, postal workers are nearly as busy as Santa's elves.

Due to the mail load and a tremendous blizzard which has been engulfing the North Pole for the past few weeks, mailmen haven't been able to get through to Santa with his requests from local boys and girls.

As a service to St. Nick and the post office and to good boys and girls, this newspaper prints the letters to Santa, so he can read them in his regular edition, enabling him to handle the requests.

Here is the last batch of mail:

Helo Aids In Burglary Arrests

Two San Diego men were arrested in Lemon Grove last week and charged with burglary after a local resident reported prowlers in the 8400 block of Golden ave.

The call was made at about 10:20 p.m., according to reports from the Sheriff's Department. Astrea, the department's helicopter, was on patrol in the area and was circling above the vicinity within one minute, lighting up the surroundings with a search light.

A patrol car arrived minutes later and arrested Daniel P. Copley, 23, and Michael Vallario, 18, found hiding in a storage shed in the backyard of one of the homes on Golden ave.

Even though the helicopter crew was unable to spot any suspects, the use of the searchlight effectively pinned the two in the shed, cutting off any escape attempt.

Apathy Could Kill L.G. Park Project

By John Nicholson

Apathy may kill any chance Lemon Grove has for gaining a park next year.

A six-acre park at Mt. Vernon and Massachusetts, to be funded through a county service area and money from the Department of Housing and Urban Development, may never come to pass.

The Lemon Grove Planning Association last year decided to seek a service area, which would supply matching funds with HUD money for the construction of the park.

At that time, much support was noted for the park, which is desparately needed if the town is to attain park acreage anywhere near the desired amount, as set down in guidelines by the county.

If the service area is formed, then Lemon Grove will presumedly get its park. If not, the proposal is almost hopeless.

In order for the service area to be formed, it must first be approved by the Local Agency Formation Commission, then by the County Board of Supervisors.

This month, LAFCO scheduled a hearing on the proposal, but due to the fact that no supporters were in attendance at the hearing, it was postponed until January 15.

Although the Planning Association has officially given its support, nobody from that organization was on hand to speak for the project at the meeting.

At the January 15 hearing, if there are no supporters on hand to speak in favor of the project, it will almost assuredly be rejected. And with its rejection, the park project will die.

At last week's meeting of the Planning Association, apathy again took its toll.

Apparently because of holiday involvement, only a handful of local residents showed up last week to hear LAFCO staff member Peter Detwiler explain the project.

Detwiler came to the meeting to determine if there was any support in the town for the project. If he wanted support, he surely left the meeting disappointed.

Those who were on hand were not even sure if they wanted the service area, and the best that could be offered along the lines of support was a statement from earlier minutes that the association was in favor of the project.

It's going to take more than that to get a park for Lemon Grove.

One person in attendance even questioned whether or not it wouldn't be better for the county to build a park in Lemon Grove instead of utilizing the service area-HUD funds method.

That's a question that should have been asked months ago before the service area was requested. Now that the project is in mid-stream, it's too late to scrap the service area. If it dies so does the park.

The question now is not how to build the park, but whether to build it at all.

If it is to be built, some support must be organized and a group of interested citizens will have to attend the January 15 hearing and tell why the town should have the park.

There is one more chance for organization of support. The Planning Association will meet January 11 at 7:30 p.m. in the Golden Avenue School auditorium.

Some support must be garnered then, or apathy will kill the project.

Supporters who can't attend that meeting should go directly to the LAFCO hearing January 15. It will begin at 9 a.m. in room 358 of the County Administration Center, 1600 Pacific Highway, San Diego.

Resistance to Valhalla Mounts; More Petition Carriers Named

More petition carriers and petition signers have joined the resistance to the construction of Valhalla high school with tax override money, according to Mrs. Leonard Ruth, of La Mesa.

The school is scheduled to be built east of Casa de Oro near Cottonwood Golf course. Petitioners note that voters approved override money for the operation of schools and that bond money raised for construction has been used elsewhere.

They also cited the diminishing school population at lower grades as making the additional high school unnecessary.

The petition asks the school board to rescind the action already taken.

Mrs. Ruth said petitions in this area are available from the following people in the high school attendance areas as indicated:

Mrs. H. L. Nottingham, 3810 Costabella st., Lemon Grove, 469-6667, Helix High school; Mrs. John Belt, 4032 Rogers rd., Spring Valley. 469-5913, Monte Vista High school, and Mrs. Bennie O'Brien, 1808 Ramon, Lemon Grove. 463-8272, Mt. Miguel High School.

One set of petitions with 180 names was presented to the board December 11. Petitions now being circulated will be presented January 8, Mrs. Ruth said.

Last week, further opposition to the plan of building Valhalla through tax money was offered by the Grossmont Education Association, which represents about 700 of the district's 975 teachers.

The GEA is presently circulating petitions through the district schools to obtain signatures from teachers.

The group contends that use of operating tax money will tend to cause deterioration of programs because of budget cuts, which could also mean small or no salary increases.

R. E. Felty To Head S. California Office

Richard E. Felty will become Assistant Deputy Director of the State Department of Parks and Recreation and will be in charge of the Southern California office beginning January 1, according to Department Director William Penn Mott, Jr.

Felty will replace Robert M. Baker, who recently accepted the position of Regional Director, in Atlanta, of the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation of the U. S. Department of the Interior.

S.V. Rest Home Wins Special Use Permit

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A special use permit for a rest home at 3416 Helix street for a maximum of six guests in the La Mesa Country Club Zoning District was granted on Friday by the county planning commission.

The applicant was Harold J. Drinkwine.

County staff said no construction changes would be needed.

Local Liquor Store Robbed Of $744 Cash

The Village Liquor and Wine Shope at 7779 Broadway in Lemon Grove was the victim of an armed robbery last Wednesday night in which two suspects escaped with $774 in cash.

According to reports from the Sheriff's Department, two male Negroes entered the store at about 8:15 p.m. last Wednesday and pretended to purchase some cold duck.

When clerk Roger Reoux offered to help them with the selection, one of the suspects placed a gun at his back and said "You ain't got the right brand . . . get in the back room."

The suspects then tied Reoux in the back room and attempted to open the cash register. Failing to get the register open, they returned, untied Reoux, and forced him to open the register. They then re-tied the clerk and fled on foot.

A description of the suspects was given as:

The suspect with the gun stood about 5-7 and a slender build. The second suspect was about 5-8 to 5-9 and also a slender build, wearing a red golf cap. The smaller suspect was about 18 or 19 years of age and the other was in his early 20's. The pistol was a small weapon, possibly, a .22 caliber automatic.

Learn Spanish The Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

A Christmas vocabulary in Spanish would not be complete without expressions like "Feliz Navidad" (Merry Christmas), or said in another way "Feliz Pascuas" (Happy Holiday).

"Navidad" refers to "nativity" or "birth." So when we say "Feliz Navidad" we are literally saying "Happy Birth" or "Happy Birthday." Then when the Spanish-speaking world celebrates "Navidad" they are celebrating the nativity of "EL NINO JESUS," (The Child Jesus).

"Posada" is a popular word during this season. Most speakers of English are surprised to find out that the literal meaning of "posada" is "inn" or "lodge." "Las Posadas" became a traditional celebration in which participants replayed the roles of "Jose y Maria" (Joseph and Mary) in their search for lodging on the first Christmas.

Today the word "posada" has become almost synonymous with "fiesta" (party). This means that "posadas" have become a part of Christmas parties. Members at the Christmas party divide themselves into two groups: the Joseph and Mary group and the innkeeper group. The Joseph and Mary group sings to the innkeeper group asking for lodging. After several choruses between the two groups the Joseph and Mary group finds lodging.

The "pinata" game is usually played after the "canto de posadas" (singing of posadas). Party members form a line to take turns at being blindfolded and attemping to break the "pinata." Each blindfolded player is allowed three strikes at the papier-mache object filled with candies and goodies. The one who breaks the "pinata" is given a prize.

Billy Graham Movie At Local Church

The First Baptist Church of Lemon Grove, 2910 Main st., will present the Billy Graham movie, "For Pete's Sake." The public is invited to the presentation, scheduled for 8:30 p.m. December 31.

GROUNDWORK — Monte Vista science students learn that science is not all brainwork. The students are involved in the construction of an observatory which will house three telescopes as well as meteorological equipment and physical science devices. Construction of the observatory is done completely by the students under the guidance of a professional consultant. But before the plaster and cement can be brought to the site, there is a good amount of ditch-digging to be completed. Aside from a few blisters and some aching backs, the students are weathering their labors well. A few youngsters are helping over the holiday vacation period, but most are resting up for more labor next month. Donations of building materials and scientific equipment are being accepted for the project.

JOINT PROJECT — The annual Christmas decorations for the plaza in Lemon Grove this year was a three-way project. The project called for putting up colored lights on the large evergreen tree at Broadway and Imperial. The Community Betterment Committee put the lights up with help from Pacific Telephone, the Chamber of Commerce will foot the electric bill, and the Business Women's League purchased the lights. The decorations will be up through the holiday season.

Monarchy Whips Cavers, Upsets Favored Pt. Loma

After dropping three straight contests while watching Mt. Miguel and Helix open the prep basketball season with unblemished marks, Monte Vista had it pretty bad.

But Monarch coach Pete Colonelli turned his team around and two wins last week brought the Monarchy to an even record of 3-3.

Last week's action saw Monte Vista triumph, 65-42, over San Diego, and nip Pt. Loma, 44-41.

In Tuesday's game, the Monarchs opened strong but couldn't shake the rugged Cavers, who matched bucket for bucket.

Opening the second quarter at 12-12, the Monarchs exploded with the fast break, scorching the nets for 27 tallies. More than half of those points were scored on layups resulting from the fast break.

With a 17-point lead, Monte Vista slacked off in the third quarter and allowed San Diego to narrow the gap to 12 points, but an air-tight defense in the final quarter coupled with the fast break enabled the Monarchy to outscore the Cavers by a 15-4 margin in the last stanza to seal the victory.

On Friday night, the Monarchs took on the then undefeated Pt. Loma Pointers.

The local quintet jumped away to a seven-point advantage in the first quarter and the margin grew to as large as 13 points during the second period before the Pointers were able to whittle it to just five points by halftime.

The Pointers battled back in the third quarter to tie it up, 37-37.

Faced with a new ballgame as the fourth period opened, Monte Vista countered with its most effective weapon: a pressing defense and a deliberate offensive plan.

The Monarchs could only muster seven points in the last quarter, but it proved to be enough, as the Pointers could score but four.

Gulls Christmas Gift Is $1 Seats For Kids Under 19

The Gulls will keep their eyes on the victory column as they face off with the Salt Lake City Golden Eagles tonight at 6:30.

The game can be heard over KOGO radio 60 with John Brooks calling the play-by-play.

San Diego has lost the first four games of the current six game road trip. Dallas beat the Gulls 5-3, Ft. Worth came out on top 5-4, Omaha also won by a single goal 3-2 and Tulsa, last Saturday night, shutout San Diego 7-0.

Jim Schraefel tallied the first Gulls hat trick of 1972-73 in the 5-4 loss to Ft. Worth and Gerry Goyer had both goals in the 3-2 setback to Omaha.

Last week the Gulls lost leading scorer Jim Stanfield in a trade. The property of the Los Angeles Kings, Stanfield was sent by the NHL club to the Portland Buckaroos in a trade that saw Buck defenseman John Van Horlick assigned to the Kings farm club in Springfield. With the loss of Stanfield, Gerry Goyer takes the top spot in the Gull scoring race with 24 points in 27 games (9 goals and 15 assists).

Tickets for the Gulls-Russians game of January 3 are now on sale at the San Diego Sports Arena, Bill Gambles Mens Stores and all Arena ticket agencies. The prices are the same as regular season rates, $5, $4.50, $3.50 $3, $2.50.

KIDS $1 DURING HOLIDAYS

The Gulls are presenting a holiday special for all kids high school age and under. On games of December 23 and December 27 all kids will get into the $3 and $2.50 sections for only $1. Tickets are now on sale at the Arena ticket office for the December 23 game against the Omaha Knights and the 27th contest with the Salt Lake Golden Eagles.

Goalies Ken Broderick and Bob Champoux are still 1-2 in the WHL goaltending race. Broderick is the only goalie in the WHL with a goals against average of under 3.00. He stands at 2.79. Champoux is next on the list at 3.24.

San Diego is now 10-2-2 on Sports Arena ice and 1-10-2 on the road.

Aztec Hoopsters In Illinois Road Trip

A few years ago a trip through Chicago to meet De Paul, Northern Illinois and Illinois State might have been termed a breather. This year, however, the road trip looms as a very tough set for Dick Davis and his San Diego State basketball team.

The Aztecs, 3-2 on the season after a 86-53 win over Portland State on Friday and a 87-75 loss to 10th ranked Oral Roberts on Saturday, opened the pre-Christmas tour against De Paul on Tuesday, meet Northern Illinois tonight in DeKalb and Ilinois State Saturday in Normal.

Northern Illinois could be one of the most underrated clubs in the nation. The Huskies were 21-4 last season and have three starters back from that club along with five other lettermen. Northern Illinois was the third leading scoring team in the nation last season with a 95.2 average and was seventh in rebounding with a 55.2 mark.

Jim Bradley, a 6-9 sophomore All-America, is the top Huskie. He averaged 22.9 points and 15.9 rebounds last year. Northern Illinois and the Aztecs have met three times with NIU holding a 2-1 edge.

Illinois State was 16-10 last season, but the big attraction on the Redbird team is Doug Collins.

Collins, a 6-6 senior, was a standout on America's Olympic team and was the third leading scorer in the nation last year in college ball with a 32.6 average. Collins won the Abe Saperstein Award last year as the nation's top player.

The Azteecs and Redbirds have met only once in 1966-67 season with ISU winning 77-76.

Both games can be heard on radio KFMB (760) with Ron Reina calling the action. The games will start at 5:30 p.m. San Diego time.

Last weekend, San Diego State set a new school rebound record in the blitz against Portland State. The Aztecs picked off 75 rebounds to break the old mark of 73 set against USIU in 1969-70 season.

Saturday was also a record night as 4,463 fans showed up to watch Oral Roberts beat San Diego. The crowd was the second largest in Aztec history, topped only by the 9,741 that showed up last year for the Cal State Long Beach game.

In Saturday's game, Richard Fuqua of Oral Roberts, who was the second leading scorer in the nation last year with a 35.9 average was held to just 11 points. It was his second lowest point total in two years.

Mt. Miguel Bucket Brigade Wins Fifth

Mt. Miguel High School's basketball team continued erratic but effective play last week in winning its fifth game in six starts on the season.

That Matadors ran into trouble against Point Loma and a second half rally left them short by two points, 50-48 Wednesday night.

On Friday night, it was the same story, but a second half rally turned into an overtime victory over Madison Bay, 54-47.

Against Pt. Loma, the Matadors were flat in the opening half and took a 16 point deficit into the locker room, 31-15. The problem centered around a good Pt. Loma defense, which double-teamed leading scorer Mark Dobranski.

In the second half, however, the team adjusted and began putting some markers on the board. The Matadors outscored the Pointers 15-9 in the third period, then finally took the lead, 40-38 with 4:41 left in the game.

The small lead lasted only seconds, however, as the Matadors began playing sloppy ball and collected fouls. The Pointers netted 10 of their 15 last quarter points on foul shots.

On Friday night, the Matadors opened with cold shooting and continued that way for about three quarters of the game.

The Miguel squad trailed by five after the first quarter, by eight at halftime, and by ten going into the last period.

But it was then when the team clicked, sparked by the leadership and sharpshooting of reserve guard Gary Lee. The Matadors scored twelve unanswered points as the quarter opened to take a two-point lead.

Mission Bay managed to scratch back to tie the score at 45-45 as the game ended, launching the season's first overtime for both teams.

In the overtime period, the outcome of the game was never in doubt as Mt. Miguel outscored the Bucs, 9-2 to claim the victory.

State Grapplers Gird For Meet Against CSLB

San Diego State's wrestling team will get a breather for almost three weeks before entering PCAA competition against Cal State Long Beach January 5 in Peterson Gym.

Last week the Aztecs posted two wins and a loss in dual meets to run their dual meet record to 4-1.

On Wednesday, the Aztecs dropped a 20-18 decision to Cal State Fullerton, but came back over the weekend to beat Cal State Hayward 42-8 and Pacific Coast Athletic Association foe San Jose State 25-24.

Lindsey Yip of San Diego State won both his matches over the weekend at 118 pounds while Simon Flores, Roger Eckes and Scott Davis all posted big wins over San Jose. It was a Davis win at 190 pounds that assured the Aztec win.

Fullerton was rated No. 6 in California before the match with the Aztecs, while San Jose State was 4th in the University Division.

Utah taxes beer $4 a keg.

Monte Vista Matmen Draw With Brawley

Grossmont League powerhouse Monte Vista, which will seek this year to unseat Mt. Miguel as defending CIF wrestling champion, is probably glad that Brawley won't be participating in the San Diego Section CIF competition.

Brawley, a top team from Imperial Valley, gave the Monarchs all they could handle as the two teams battled to a 25-25 tie in an unusual triple dual meet involving four other teams, including Mt. Miguel.

Monte Vista is currently rated second in San Diego Section, just behind Orange Glen. With the season still young, however, the Monarchs will have time to develop young grapplers before meeting Orange Glen in post season competition.

Orange Glen was not on the minds of the Monarchs Saturday, however, as they took on Brawley.

The Monarchs opened quickly with a pin and a decision to take a commanding lead, but Brawley battled back with a pair of decisions before Monte Vista seemingly put it out of reach with two decisions and another pin.

But Brawley's heavier wrestlers came back with three decisions to tighten the score. A close decision by Matt Taylor once again gave Monte Vista command of the meet, with Brawley needing two pins to win and at least one pin to tie.

A late pin gave Brawley a chance as the meet came down to the heavyweight battle, where Brawley nearly won it with a pin. Unfortunately for the desert wrestlers, the match was only a decision, netting the tie.

Brawley, ired by the sister-kisser, went on to defeat Mt. Miguel and Helix by big margins, while Monte Vista easily beat University and El Centro.

Mt. Miguel easily whipped University and El Centro, while Helix won an easy one over University and a close one over El Centro despite two forfeitures.

Next on the agenda for Mt. Miguel and Monte Vista is the El Cajon tournament at El Cajon High School today through Saturday.

Champ Swimmers To Be Feted At Sea World

Mike Stamm and Cathy Carr, Olympic Gold Medal winners, together with their coach, Mike Troy, will be honored at Sea World Dec. 30.

The swimmers will be formerly recognized in a city-wide "San Diego Olympians Day" declared by Mayor Pete Wilson. The two young medal winners are members of the Coronado Navy Swim club which is coached by Troy, a gold-medal winner in the 1960 Olympic games.

Sea World, Helms Hall of Fame, and San Diego City are jointly sponsoring the ceremony, which starts at 2:30 p.m. It will be held in Shamu stadium prior to the regular "Shamu Goes Hollywood" show.

Awards will be made to the swimmers with a special award coming from George Millay, Sea World president.

Radio personality Harry Martin (Happy Hare) will be master of ceremonies.

Miss Carr set a world record of 1:13.58 in 100 meter breaststroke and was a member of the 400-meter relay team which set a world's record of 4:20.75.

Stamm, won one gold medal and two silver ones. He placed second in both the 100-meter and 200-meter backstroke events and was a member of the 400-meters medley relay which posted a world record 3:48.16.

Troy, in 1960, set a world's record in 200-meter butterfly and was on the 800-meter freestyle relay which also set a world's record.

Rascals, Atlas Top Suburban Soccer League

The Rascals continued with a firm grip on first place in the Suburban Soccer League's Division IV, while the Division III leaders, Atlas United, won last week in a showdown battle over the Lions to bolster its lead.

The Rascals topped the playboys, 1-0, to stretch their season record to 7-1, one full game better than the second place Cues, who also won, 4-3, over the Pros.

In other games, it was the Marauders over the Monarchs, 2-1, the Rippers and Braves drawing at 3-3, and the Colts and Chargers in a 1-1 tie.

In Division IV, Atlas United, unbeaten and untied, took on the once-beaten Lions in a showdown for first place.

A win by the Lions would have tied them for the lead with Atlas, but it was not to be as the favorites prevailed, 4-0.

In other divisional games, the Continentals kept a slim hold on third place by tying with the fourth place Roadrunners, 3-3, the Hawks knocked off the Raiders, 7-0, to move into fifth place, the Razorbacks won their second game of the season, a 9-2 victory over the Rangers, and the Celtics and Royals battled to a 1-1 tie.

Outstanding players for the week in Division III were Ricky Huyett, who scored a hattrick for the Razorbacks, and Hans Van de Vrugt, who tallied his 16th goal in eight games for Atlas United.

Direct Dialing Of Holiday Calls Can Save Time, Money

Direct distance dialing — a tinsel-trimmed gift to telephone operators everywhere — will ride to the rescue again this year as Pacific Telephone gears up to handle its customary flood of Christmas calls.

R. H. Smith Jr., division traffic manager for PacTel, estimates there will be about 620,000 calls made this Christmas throughout the county but that less than 25 per cent of them will involve long distance operators.

"We figure that customers will dial a half-million calls themselves; this is about 71,000 more than last year. On the other hand, operators will handle about 120,000 calls this Christmas which is just about the same number they handled last year," Smith said.

"More people are dialing their own calls because it's both faster and cheaper," Smith judged.

Smith said that the downward trend in operator-handled calls and the increase in the number of DDD calls began within the past couple of years.

"In 1968, for instance, operators were involved in about 190,000 calls and there were less than 300,000 DDD calls. And the number of operators needed to handle the calls on Christmas has dropped by about 30 per cent in the same four-year period," Smith said.

At that, Smith said, it will still take about 750 operators in PacTel's seven long distance offices in San Diego County to handle the heavy volume of Christmas calls.

He added that customers may still face delays in completing calls but that the delays will stem from overloaded circuits across the land rather than a shortage of operators.

Smith suggested several ways to reduce or eliminate delays.

"Call the afternoon of Dec. 24 rather than waiting until Christmas Eve or Christmas itself. Our records show that the period between 2 p.m. and 5 p.m. is 'dead time,' ideal for placing your holiday call," Smith said.

Smith also advised callers to obtain area codes well in advance of Christmas in order to eliminate the delay of a toll operator looking them up on the holiday itself.

Above all, he concluded a person should dial his own call. Not only is it faster since it does away with an operator having to place the call, but it also is less expensive.

As an example, Smith cited the difference beteen operator-handled and DDD rates on a holiday call from San Diego to Birmingham, Ala.

"If an operator were to place the call, the customer would be charged $1.30 for the first three minutes compared to only 75 cents if he were to dial the number himself," Smith said.

"As a general rule of thumb, a subscriber can save from 4 to 70 per cent on the price of a three-minute call if he dials it himself," Smith concluded.

Sedimentation Projects Eyed

Design of additional sedimentation basins at the R. M. Levy Water Treatment Plant near Lake Jennings will be undertaken by James M. Montgomery Consulting Engineers, following action by the Helix Water District Board of Directors during its meeting last week.

Construction of the additional facilities will increase plant efficiency from its present rated capacity of 53 million gallons per day to an anticipated daily capacity of 75 million gallons.

"Start of construction will depend upon other studies being undertaken by the San Diego County Water Authority and other water service agencies in the County," Helix Chief Engineer C. G. Watters, Jr., reported to the Board.

The additional treatment facilities will be necessary before state project water can be distributed, Watters pointed out. California health officials have indicated state water cannot be distributed for domestic use until it has been treated.

Sedimentation basins are utilized to remove larger foreign particles such as algae from the water before it goes through the fine coal and sand filters which give the water its final "scrubbing".

Traffic Stop Leads To Marijuana, Drug Arrest

A San Diego man was arrested in Lemon Grove last week and charged with possession of marijuana and possession of restricted dangerous drugs.

Taken into custody at about 1 a.m. last Monday morning was Ignacio R. Padua, 29, after his vehicle was stopped on a routine traffic violation at Central and Massachusetts in Lemon Grove.

After stopping the vehicle, according to reports from the Sheriff's Department, deputies ran a routine name check on the suspect and it was determined that he was on probation for an earlier offense and had given up rights guaranteed by the fourth amendment as a condition of probation.

His vehicle was then searched and inside deputies discovered approximately two ounces of a material believed to be marijuana, as well as 11 red capsules appearing to be seconol and one white tablet believed to be amphetamine, as well as a "roach clip", a device commonly used to smoke marijuana.

Mobile Unit On Display At L.G. Library

Between 10 a.m. and noon today there will be on display at the Lemon Grove Library, 7735 Pacific ave., a newly constructed Media Mobile.

Dave Guttman, of the Serra Regional Library System, designed the mobile unit and it is the only one of its kind made. Its purpose is to serve Spanish speaking and Native Americans in San Diego and Imperial Counties who do not have access to libraries.

The services offered by this unusual Media Mobile include not only loans of paperback books written in Spanish and English, but cassettes and videotape and film cartridge loans. Patrons whom this unit will serve can also view film and other types of programs. It will act as a mobile classroom with classes in English as a second language and in Native American history and culture.

During the showing of the Media Mobile at the Lemon Grove Library, the equipment and services will be continuously demonstrated. Everyone is welcome to visit this mobile.

PTA HILITES

Bancroft

The final PTA program before Christmas was held Wednesday night at Bancroft Elementary School under the chairmanship of Mrs. Mary Vanden Broeck, third and fourth grade teacher.

The program consisted of a giant picture frame mounted on the stage of the school auditorium, where "moving pictures" appeared in the form of school students who posed to special music.

Included in the musical rendition, performed entirely by students, were pianos, autoharps, cymbals, and tone bells. All grade levels participated. Director of music was fourth and fifth grade teacher Charles Scott.

Fascism began in Italy under Mussolini and was intended to counteract socialism.

Norton Whips Charley Reno In Underwhelming Decision

The cops were putting a raucous fight fan out of the Coliseum.

Ken Norton, San Diego's top ranking heavyweight — and 8th in nation — was fighting a fat heavyweight named Charley Reno.

It was the fifth round.

Most of the 500-600 fans in the Coliseum turned their attention to the battle between the unruly fan and police.

It wasn't really that poor a fight. But if you named the ten top stiffs on the west coast, Reno's name might be listed. On the other hand, Norton, moaning for a chance at Muhammad Ali, might also have qualified for the list. He was off his stride. Luckily, he was fighting Reno and not Ali.

But the crowd cheered Reno. Not for his ability as much as his durability. He stayed the 10 rounds. Punches splashed his blood on ringsiders. But there he was, all 250 pounds of him — counting the belly fat which hung over his trunks — still poking back at the bell. Norton was in at a trim 208.

In another 10-rounder, highly regarded Dave Love, a middleweight, won a unanimous decision from Alfonso Gonzales of Los Angeles. Love wisely showed more caution than class because he was glassy-eyed and wobbly-kneed in the finale, round. Another round might have seen him ko'd.

A six-round prelim and a five-round aftermath did little to improve the card.

Fight promoter Lou Lake said the Coliseum would be dark until Jan. 17 with a card yet to be booked. MG

Military Month Underway At Sea World

Military personnel, dependents and government employees will be honored at Sea World through January 15 during the third annual Military Month at the 80-acre marine park in Mission Bay.

Theme for the event is "Yule Ride Free," with special low admission extended to military and government personnel, special attractions, free Christmas gifts for the children and free rides for each person on one of five rides — the Arco Hydrofoil Boats, the Skyride, or the American Airlines Flagship Tower, which has been decorated and lighted to become the city's tallest "Christmas tree." The two children's rides include the Shamu Boat ride and the Shamu Bounce, an air-supported bouncing facility.

Santa Claus will be on hand through Sunday to visit with children and hear theid Christmas wishes. Santa will give each child, 5 through 17, a free Shamu Flying Saucer.

During the month, the special military admission price includes six regular shows and the two water specialty acts, "The Great Northwest Logger Show," and "The World's Zaniest Comedy Diver," which have been held over until Jan. 1. Admission also includes all exhibits and the opportunity to feed and pet walruses, dolphins, seals and sea lions, and Koi fish.

Special military coupons for the admission savings are available at Special Services offices at all Navy and Marine facilities in Southern California, and at Nellis Air Force Base in Nevada, and Vandenberg Air Force Base, near Santa Barabara.

Sea World is open every day of the year from 10 a.m. to dusk, with ample free parking for Sea World visitors.

Kiwanis Club Apples Available

A second batch of Kiwanis Club apples arrived in Lemon Grove last week and there are still plenty to go around. They make great stocking stuffers and are better for children than candy.

The apples are a re-order of the club's Apple Days sale of October. The club decided to re-order the fruit after emptying a box car load in record time. With more orders than apples, the club found itself a little short.

Proceeds from the sale of the apples will benefit local youth projects, including the Lemon Grove Youth Center, the Mt. Miguel Key Club and other activities.

Apples are available at the office of this newspaper, 7834 Lester ave., Lemon Grove.

Pre-Christmas Game On Qs Schedule

The San Diego Conquistadors, fresh from splitting a pair of games at home, are off on a two game tour that takes the team to Norfolk and Greensboro.

The Q's return home on the Saturday before Christmas to play Kentucky to start a long home stay.

Following Kentucky comes Denver on Tuesday, Memphis on Wednesday, New York Friday and Utah Saturday.

Children Touch Off Spring Valley Blaze

Children playing with fire were the cause of a $10,000 fire in Spring Valley last week and an electrical short touched off a $3,500 blaze in Lemon Grove.

The Spring Valley fire began Dec. 14 at 4:30 p.m. when youngsters playing in the garage of a home at 1167 Elkelton blvd., Spring Valley, ignited a piece of steel wool and threw it into a plastic bucket containing gasoline.

The bucket immediately caught fire and melted, allowing the gasoline to run all over the garage floor. The youngsters attempted to put out the fire with a garden hose, but were unsuccessful.

The blaze caused $5,000 damage to the structure and another $5,000 to its contents.

The Lemon Grove fire occurred December 11 at about 2 p.m. when the short circuit touched off a fire in a hallway of the Graham Major home, 2451 Hardy dr.

CPO Wins Sups OK

The County Board of Supervisors, by a 3-2 vote Wednesday, agreed to join the Comprehensive Planning Organization (CPO).

CPO became independent last October but Supervisors had resisted it until now. CPO control over many county functions will probably become effective with the first meeting in January. Opponents have called it the "third level of government".

Voting for: Supervisors Bonev, Walsh, Scheidle; no, Craven, Bear.

Pre-School Programs On Tap At Library

Yule Party On Tap For Rest Home Guests

Miller Guest Homes, a local firm which operates seven rest homes in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley, announced this week that a Christmas party has been scheduled for tomorrow afternoon at the Lemon Grove United Methodist Church for their guests.

Refreshments will be served at the affair, which will also include entertainment by a dance group, a Santa Claus, and visitors from a local church group. Festivities begin at 1 p.m.

The party, held each of the last three years, will for the first time be held in a central location. In the past, seven separate parties have been held.

As a separate Christmas treat, guests of the homes were taken on a bus tour of neighboring communities Wednesday to view seasonal lighting and decorations.

Four Arrested On Marijuana Charge in SV

Four persons were taken into custody last week in Spring Valley on possession of marijuana charges.

According to reports from the Sheriff's Department, Victor A. Arellano, 19, of Chula Vista, Jose G. Garcia, 18, of Chula Vista, Arthur L. Husted, 19, of Chula Vista, and a juvenile were arrested at about 11:30 p.m. Thursday night at the corner of Sweetwater rd. and Jamacha rd.

The four were riding in a vehicle at that point when the car was stopped by deputies on routine patrol after deputies noted that its occupants appeared to be young and possibly in violation of the county curfew ordinance.

Deputies contacted the driver of the vehicle and it was noted that a strong odor of burning marijuana was emitting from the car.

All four suspects were then placed under arrest and the car was searched. The search netted about an ounce and a half of a greenish vegetable matter appearing to be marijuana.

The art of embalming was developed in ancient Egypt.

Be Alert, Sober and Safe Is Holiday Traffic Advice

The California Highway Patrol's Accident Reduction Team (A.R.T.) has been operating in Lemon Grove for the past three months. The team, composed of four patrol cars with the A.R.T. sign above the front bumper, is dedicated to reducing the number of traffic accidents in this area. The team's spokesman, CHP Officer Bob Barrett says it has been successful. Figures will soon be released to show its effectiveness. Each week this newspaper publishes a column concerning ART's activities.

What can the CHP's A.R.T. (Accident Reduction Team), Lemon Grove chapter, give you for Christmas?

For one thing, some advice that may prevent injury to you or other citizens; prevent damage to vehicles and, perhaps, avert citation or arrest and the possible loss of drivers' license.

The advice, which is given here, is particularly pertinent during "Danger Days" — the period between Dec. 22-31.

These are the days when holiday parties, pre-occupation with shopping and holiday social activities, longer hours and possibility of fog or rain all contribute to traffic mishaps.

CHP Officer Bob Barrett, assigned with ART for Lemon Grove, offered some cogent opinions regarding safe driving during the "Danger Days" period.

"To protect the public during the holidays, 75%-85% of the total CHP force will cover streets and highways 24 hours a day," he said.

Based on a determination by State Attorney General Evelle J. Younger to keep highway accidents at a minimum. Barrett offered this advice to motorist:

If you plan to attend holiday parties — and if you plan to drink at these parties — make plans to have someone drive you home.

Be patient in heavy traffic.

Leave for your destination early enough to allow for delays.

Don't follow the car ahead too closely.

Avoid changing lanes except when necessary.

Watch the cars ahead of you and behind you.

Be alert for pedestrians and cars entering the roadway from side streets and parking areas.

Keep auto windows clean and view unobstructed. Maintain headlight and taillights so they can give light as needed.

Drunk driving arrests, he noted, traditionally soar in December due to increased drinking.

Suspension of drivers' licenses could increase, too, because of the "implied consent" law. The law says that a motorist must submit to a chemical intoxication test when requested by an officer who has reasonable cause to believe the driver was intoxicated while driving.

If the suspect refuses, even though he is later acquitted of drunken driving, his license could still be suspended.

Conviction of drunken driving carries other penalties. The first offense could run $500 and six months in jail, while the second offense is twice as high, and there is a minimum five day sentence.

It becomes a felony if an injury is involved, he said.

The expanded coverage of the Highway Patrol is for the benefit of all citizens and because of the drinking opportunities police will be on the alert for those who drink and drive and if a suspect refuses to take a scientific test for intoxication, proper authorities will be notified and the license suspended.

Once the license is suspended and if the person continues to drive, he is liable to find himself in more trouble. He will be subject to prosecution and the first offense could land him in jail for as much as six months and result in a fine of up to $500.

Later convictions, within seven years of the first, are stiffer — one year in jail and a fine as high as $1,000.

With these thoughts in mind, members of Lemon Grove's ART urge that those who drink stay from behind the wheel and those who drive be alert and careful as a precaution against those who do drink.

Local Crusades Near Goals

Lemon Grove and Spring Valley volunteers have raised more money this year for United Crusade than in any previous campaign, and both communities are in striking distance of their respective goal figures.

Contributions totalling $11,330 have been received in Lemon Grove. This figure is $1,336 over the final amount raised in 1971 and is 91 per cent of this year's $12,415 goal.

In Spring Valley, $3,488 has been recorded for a $1,184 increase over the final amount raised in 1971. It is also 94 per cent of this year's $3,730 goal.

The totals were announced at the final public report meeting of the San Diego countywide United Crusade campaign last Wednesday at the El Cortez Hotel.

Both of the Crusade community chairmen, Robert Guest of Lemon Grove and Alex Struthers, Spring Valley, are asking all volunteers to stay aboard for the next few weeks to help in the final clean-up of accounts.

The chairmen are also asking all residents and business people who have not contributed to mail their gifts to Post Office Box AH in Lemon Grove and Post Office Box 1402 in Spring Valley.

Youth Center Campaign Rolls On Despite Closing

The fate of the Lemon Grove Youth Center will not be decided until early next year, said Len Farness, who has been spokesman for the facility while it was in operation.

There is a question as to whether it will re-open and that decision will be based, pretty much, on who volunteers to help supervise the operation.

Meanwhile, a trickle of money is being received from previously promised subscriptions to this newspaper. As subscribers pay, 50 cents of each $4 a year subscription is set aside for the Center's expenses.

100 Jobs Sought By LG Youngsters

There are nearly 100 Lemon Grove youngsters seeking jobs.

They'll do housework, yardwork, gift wrapping, window-washing, auto washing — or any other type of work within the capabilities of junior high school aged boys and girls.

It's part of the Lemon Grove Job Bank project to obtain part-time gainful work for young teenagers on Christmas vacation. They'll perform their jobs with a minimum of supervision and the pay is only $1 an hour.

Each youngster has parent's written permission to work. Each of them checks in each day at Job Bank Headquarters — Dutch Cleaners, 7870 Broadway, in Lemon Grove.

Those who have jobs to be performed should call Dutch Cleaners, 466-4145 between 7 a.m.-6 p.m.

In a few minutes the prospective workman will return the call and employer and employee work out the arrangements.

It's simple — and it's a good idea.

John and Julie Farle to Retire

After 20 years of serving lunch to local businessmen and residents, John and Julie Farle will leave the Lemon Grove business community.

John and Julie's Snack Shack, at 7914 Broadway, has been sold, and the Farle's will retire at the end of the year.

Farle said that the couple, residents of San Diego, will relax, do a little traveling, and "visit my money in Las Vegas". He said he wanted to extend a sincere "thank you" to the community and everyone who has patronized the shop throughout the years.

Free Licenses For Spayed Dogs

The answer is "yes" if you want to know whether you can get a two-year county dog license free for your pet if the animal is 'spayed' by the dog's family veterinarian.

The free license is an incentive to better control dog population and the surgery can be performed by any of the 165 veterinarians in the county.

Some dog owners had mistakenly believed that the animal had to be spayed at a specific location.

tion by which injustices can be brought to light.

One source has said that only defense attorneys had access to the transcripts—that he could have gotten them nowhere else.

There are those who fear this case may open the door to "fishing expeditions" in which courts may demand information of reporters that has no bearing on the case being heard.

Meanwhile, U.S. Senator Alan Cranston and Congressman Lionel Van Deerlin are pushing legislation that would re-establish the reporter's shield.

It is important to every citizen that such a shield exist. Each newspaper had a list of stories concerning matters inimical to the public good that it has published as a result of the confidentiality between source and reporter. One such relationship resulted in the revelation of dishonesty in the San Diego assessor's office several years ago. It started with a confidential tip—an arrangement that has become hazard- with the court's decision in the Farr case.
